Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

THE PRIVACY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION IS IMPORTANT TO US.

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL AND DENTAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Our Legal Duty

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect July 16, 2014, and will remain in effect until we replace it.

Manos de Cristo Dental Clinic employees must protect the privacy of health information that identifies you as part of their jobs. We do not give employees access to health information unless they need it for a business reason. Business reasons for needing access to health information include making benefit decisions, paying bills and planning for the care you need.

In most situations, the Manos de Cristo Dental Clinic may not use or disclose health information that identifies you without your written permission. This Notice explains when we may use or disclose health information that identifies you without your permission.

You may request a copy of this Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact Rose M Maldonado, Privacy Officer at (512) 477-7454.

How We May Use and Disclose Medical or Dental Information About You

1. For Treatment
We may use or disclose health information about you to health care providers for the provision, coordination, or management of your healthcare. For example, we may share your health information with other specialists to whom you are referred for treatment purposes.

2. For Payment
We may use or disclose health information about you to pay or collect payment for you health care. For example, we may need to disclose your health information to a health plan in order for the health plan to pay us for the services rendered to you. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment or procedure you are going to receive in order to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the services.

3. For Health Care Operations
We may use or disclose health information about you for health care operations. For example, we may disclose your health information for purposes of business management or the general administration of the Manos de Cristo Dental Clinic, including conducting quality assessment and improvement activities; reviewing the competence, qualifications and performance of health care professionals or health plans; training healthcare professionals and others; conducting accreditation, certification, licensing, or credentialing activities; carrying out activities related to the creation, renewal, or replacement of a contract of health insurance or health benefits; or providing medical review, legal services, or auditing functions.

4. Appointment Reminders
We may contact you in order to remind you of an appointment or provide information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. For example, we may provide a written or telephone reminder that your next appointment is coming up.

5. Raising Funds
We may contact you to raise funds for the Manos de Cristo Dental Clinic.

6. Family Member, Other Relative, or Close Personal Friend
We may disclose health information about you to a family member, other relative or close personal friend when:
   - The health information if related to that person’s involvement with your care or payment for your care; and
   - You have had an opportunity to stop or limit the disclosure before it happens.

7. Government Programs Providing Public Benefits
We may disclose health information about you to another government agency offering public health benefits if:
   - The information relates to whether you qualify for or are signed-up for specific programs and the law requires specifically allows the disclosure; or
   - The other government agency has the same privacy protections we do, has programs that serve similar types of people, and the disclosure is needed to coordinate or improve how the programs are run.

8. Health Oversight Activities
We may sometimes use or disclose health information about you to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, including audits, investigations, inspections, licensure actions, or disciplinary actions or other activities necessary for oversight of the health care system, government programs, eligibility or compliance, and to enforce health-related civil rights and criminal laws.

9. Public Health
We may disclose health information about you to a public health authority for purposes of preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability.

10. Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence
If we believe you are the victim of abuse or neglect, we may disclose health information about you to a government agency that receives reports of abuse or neglect if:
   - A law requires the disclosure;
   - You agree to the disclosure; or
   - A law allows the disclosure and the disclosure is needed to prevent serious harm to you or someone else; or
   - A law allows the disclosure, you are unable to agree or disagree, the information is needed for immediate action, and the information will not be used against you.

If we make a report under this section, we will tell you or your representative about the report unless we believe that telling you would place you at risk of harm.

11. Serious Threat to Health or Safety
We may use or disclose health information about you if we believe the use or disclosure is needed:
   - To prevent or lessen a serious and immediate threat to the health and safety of a person or the public;
   - For law enforcement authorities to identify or catch an individual who has admitted participating in a violent crime that resulted in serious harm to the victim, unless the information was learned while initiating or in the course of counseling or therapy; or
   - For law enforcement authorities to catch an individual who has escaped from lawful custody.

12. For Law Enforcement Purposes
We may disclose health information about you to a law enforcement official for the following law enforcement purposes:
To comply with a grand jury subpoena;
To comply with an administrative request, such as a civil investigation demand, if the information is relevant to an investigation that relates to the administration of one of our programs;
To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, witness or missing person;
In response to a request for information about an actual or suspected crime victim;
To alert a law enforcement official of a death that we suspect is the result of criminal conduct; or
To report evidence of a crime on our property.

For Judicial or Administrative Proceedings
We may disclose health information about you in response to:
An order from a regular or administrative court; or
A subpoena or other discovery request by a party to a lawsuit when we are party to the lawsuit.

As Required by Law
We must use or disclose health information about you when required to do so by federal or Texas laws or regulations.

Business Associates
We may disclose health information about you to our business associates we have contracted with to perform certain services if the business associate:
• Needs the information to perform services for us; and
• Agrees to protect the privacy of the information.

Secretary of Health and Human Services
We must disclose health information about you to the Secretary of Health and Human Services with the Secretary wants to enforce privacy protections.

Research
We may use or disclose health information about you for research if a research board approves the use. The board will ensure that your privacy is protected when you health information is used for research. Your health information may also be used:
• To allow a researcher to prepare for research, as long as the researcher agrees to keep the information confidential; or
• After you die, for research that involves information about people who have died.

Other Uses and Disclosures
The Manos de Cristo Dental Clinic may use or disclose health information about you:
• To create health information that does not identify any specific individual;
• To the U.S. military or a foreign military for military purposes, if you are a member of the group asking for information;
• For purposes of lawful national security activities;
• To federal officials to protect the President and others;
• To a prison or jail, if you are in inmate of that prison or jail, or to law enforcement personnel if you are in custody;
• To a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when authorized by law;
• To comply with workers’ compensation laws or similar laws; or
• To assist in notifying a patient’s family member or person responsible for the patient’s care of the patient’s location, general health condition, or death.

For all other uses and disclosures, we must obtain your written permission, which you may withdraw at any time.
